Who We Are

RISE® is an insurance community dedicated to developing the next generation of leaders.

Through mentorship, education, networking, and leadership development, RISE empowers professionals to accelerate their careers and helps organizations attract, engage, and retain top talent.

RISE is made up over 10,000 members spanning all areas of the insurance industry. With both virtual and in-person programming, we support companies and rising talent globally.

Why It Matters Now

50% of the insurance workforce is retiring in the next 10 years. The next generation expects leadership development and purpose-driven work. Companies that invest in leadership today will lead the market tomorrow.

What Founding 50 Members Say

"We've benefited from our affiliation with RISE in so many ways over the past several years. Being a Corporate Member offers more touchpoints and visibility while furthering the development of our leaders and staff. We have found the investment to be modest in order to further dialogue and development of our leaders and staff. It's really one of the easier decisions we've made."

-Brian Pozzi, Chief Claims and Strategy Officer at The Auto Club Group

"Westfield is excited to be a corporate member of RISE. RISE is the premier organization in developing, recognizing and networking with the next generation of talent, something that is front of mind for all insurance leaders. Becoming a corporate member was a priority to demonstrate leadership in the industry in participating in solutions to our talent challenges."

-Robert Bowers, Chief Claims and Customer Service Officer at Westfield

"AmTrust Financial Services Inc. is proud to be a corporate member of Rising Insurance Star Professionals. RISE's mission to foster personal and professional growth among emerging leaders supports our commitments to continuous learning, mentoring, and relationship building with industry peers."

-Charmaine Rice, SVP, Employee Experience at AmTrust Financial Services Inc.
